

Saying Hello!

Greeting someone is a great way to help them feel welcome and is also a fantastic way to start a conversation. Some people are able to say 'hello' in more than one way. Can you say hello in a different language?

Can you find a new way of saying hello in a different language? Here are some ways for you to practise at home.

You can use this website to learn how to say hello (and other words too) in over 30 languages:

<https://www.newburyparkschool.net/lotm/index.html>

Next time you are having a conversation with someone, why not start by saying hello in one of the new ways you have learned? You could even teach them your new way!

Bonjour!

bohn-joor

French

Salaam!

saa-laam

Arabic

Guten Tag!

goo-ten tahg

German

