

The Magic Box

I can write a poem about what I would put in my Magic Box.

This box is very special to me, it has important things inside.

Kit Wright has written a poem called 'The Magic Box' If you would like to listen to him reading the poem click here. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zkpmhyc>

What sights, sounds, smells and dreams can you find in the poem. What if the poem was your own, what would you include?

Sentence Starters

I will put in the box

- sight
- Smell
- Taste
- Sound
- Dreams

My box is fashioned from _____ and _____ and _____ with _____ on the lid and _____ in the corners.
 Its hinges are _____.

I will put in the box
The first smile from a new born baby,
the soft scent of a daisy,
the fizzing bubbles of pink lemonade,
the call of a bossy garden bird.
the happiest world

I will put in the box
The colours of the rainbow,
the buzz of a bumble bee,
the fresh smell of grass,
the zing of a thunder flash.
the fun of friendship

My box is fashioned from dreams both old and new,
with sea glass on the lid and secrets in the corners.
It's hinges are my hopes.

Your box is your own.
 To fill as you please. Add lots to its contents. Or just a few ideas. You can write down your ideas in a book of your own. Make a few notes and perform in your home. Record your ideas on a device of your choice. You can save or share your poem for others to enjoy. Or just keep it for yourself It's up to YOU.