

Paint your own Blossom Tree and bring Outside Inside!

1. Begin by drawing the tree trunk using pencil.	2. Add the main branches.	3. Finish the branches with narrowing tips.	4. Add layers of sky and strips of earth to form your background.

5. Paint the sky and layers of earth.	6. Add a medium brown shade for your tree.	7. Paint on dark and light brown to create texture on the trunk and branches.	8. Use small brush strokes to create shades and texture in the grass.

9. Finish any details using different tones of the same colour. You can add lots or a small amount it is up to you.	10. Mix a very pale pink and dab the blossom on and over the branches.	11. Using dark and light green add leaves and stalks for your blossom.	12. Add any other details to enhance your painting. Try using the work of artists such as David Hockney for inspiration.

Why not use this technique to draw and paint other signs of Spring?
