PEARLINE STODDART
Also known as 'Miss Sweetie'

"You have to treat them as human beings...with respect and love."

Very soon after arriving in the UK, she became a nurse. She loved helping people but had to deal with a lot of racism.

JULES JARVIS

"I had never seen snow before!"

He held many jobs in mills and factories in Bradford. He had many challenging experiences in Britain. He often had to remind people that he was invited into this country by the government to do the jobs that many British people were unwilling to do.
Lorna came to England from Jamaica when she was 14 to join her mother who was already here. Lorna trained to be a nurse when she came to England and then became a midwife.

She has spent 45 years working in the NHS.

At first Lorna found everything different and cold! But she did love English fish & chips!

"Never give up!"
